 Yes No — Doctoral Degrees

7. Yes No — Are you part of the E/I 3 program?

Each member institution, in satisfactory administrative standing, may exercise the opportunity to export three students each academic year regardless of balance and number of annual incoming imports.

Member schools exporting annually up to three students, regardless of balance, shall annually award TE scholarships to at least an equal number of admitted students eligible for TE import.

8. OVERVIEW - is an institution-specific guide for parents and their children and a time saving opportunity for members to communicate directly with prospective TE scholars and their parents. Special features about a school's TE program, exact deadlines, cautionary notes about the competitiveness of awards, programs available to TE scholars and contact information, if public, should be posted here, if it is not filled out and posted, viewers might falsely conclude that you are not a member.

After you have completed answering the survey questions click SUBMIT INFORMATION - this will update your answers and take you to the next page -- click OVERVIEW and fill in the text box.

Finding the School that's Right for You

This page is your key to finding a Tullion Exchange member school that is the right fit for you, the student. The information available is self-reported by the member school and is based on information provided by the school. It is expected that this information is updated annually. While the vast majority of TE members complete and/or update their profile timely, some do not. In the case of incomplete information, the school will not appear in your search results from this page.

Interested students are encouraged to communicate directly with the TELO at the schools where TE consideration is sought for additional or clarifying information.

Getting Started is Easy
For each variable listed, use the drop-down menu to make your selection. If you have no preference for a particular variable, leave the field set as "no preference." Information you'll find especially helpful in your search includes deadlines, percentage of award offers, programs open to Tullion Exchange scholars, and school-specific information displayed in the Overview box.

This is the information that is shared when the search is executed. When your Mandatory Profile and Institution Information is full information is displayed. When your Mandatory Profile and Institution Information is empty little detail is provided.
